

The Coaching Commandments

1. You shall make soccer fun.
2. You shall place the safety of your players foremost.
3. You shall teach and develop sportsmanship.
4. You shall teach and develop soccer skills.
5. You shall leave no player behind in practice or play.
6. You shall not be negligent.
7. You shall do no harm that is either physical or emotional.
8. You shall show respect to your players, parents, referees, opposing players and coaches.
9. You shall learn and know the rules of play and the YSA modifications.
10. You shall not practice or play anyone who is not registered with YSA.